The Russell Kennedy Women's Network (RKWN) invites all new and existing business owners and entrepreneurs to join our evening seminar, the first event for 2020.

Guests will have an opportunity to develop financial skills through the insight of guest presenter Chaya Lal, whose presentation will focus on economic empowerment through keen business sense. Guests will also have an opportunity to connect with our network.

Guest presenter Chaya Lal is a Partner working in the Business Advisory practice at PKF. Chaya is an industry expert in the Property Development and Construction industry facilitating her clients with immense knowledge and experience. Chaya will share her insight into setting up business for sustained growth and success.

Please join our guest presenter:

Chaya Lal
Partner, PKF

Chaya is a Partner working in the Business Advisory practice of the PKF Melbourne office.

Chaya's diverse experience includes advising new businesses in relation to structuring and advising on major restructure strategies and complex tax issues in our ever-changing environment.

With a specialisation in the Property Development and Construction industry, Chaya is an industry expert in this area facilitating her clients with immense knowledge and experience.

Chaya also has in-depth experience with owner-operated supermarkets, professional service firms and medical practices.

Although her main areas of focus are tax and business structuring advice to high net worth individuals and large family groups, Chaya is now increasingly working with business owners and entrepreneurs who have 'outgrown' their current service providers and are often in need of help.

Your host:

Samantha Taylor

Special Counsel, Russell Kennedy Lawyers

Samantha is the Joint Deputy Convenor of the Russell Kennedy Women's Network, and is a Special Counsel working in the Property and Development team of Russell Kennedy's Melbourne office.

Samantha has been on the RKWN committee since October 2018, and brings strong leadership and lived experience in striving for gender equality both in the workplace and in society.
