We are pleased to invite you to Russell Kennedy's Government CPD Series for 2023 in hybrid format.

Offering in-person and online sessions.

Webinar replay pages have been added for each session, please click on the drop down below for the session you wish to watch and click on the button for that video. You will need to fill in the contact form for CPD purposes.

Please join us for 6 sessions over the day where you can choose to attend In-person or Online via Zoom. The sessions will be facilitated by Russell Kennedy Principals, Ben Lloyd and Sarah Manly. Our CPD Day is aimed at government lawyers who are holders of Practising Certificates, and who need to obtain points in the compulsory CPD categories before 31st March 2023.

You will be able to earn up to 6 CPD points in our series including Ethics, Professional Skills & Substantive Law.

With each session, we are providing the opportunity to submit your questions, before and during the session via email and in our Zoom Q&A format.

For more information or to submit a question for a session, please contact our events team via email at events@rk.com.au.
