The Victorian water sector currently faces many complex challenges. In today's multi-stakeholder environment, there is ongoing pressure to deliver a wide range of practical and effective outcomes.

Russell Kennedy, with decades of experience working in the sector, is pleased to invite you to this special, half-day seminar. Our speakers, including senior lawyers and industry insiders, will provide their unique insights and understanding.

All welcome, and for lawyers there will be 1 CPD point obtainable for each session (3 in total).

A light lunch and refreshments will be provided, with plenty of opportunities for networking. We encourage you to register as quickly as possible; numbers are limited.
