The construction industry landscape has dramatically shifted in the past few years. It is vital for a business to constantly be looking to the future and mapping out future direction, in keeping ahead of the curve.

In this webinar Principal, Kyle Gillan hosted Dr Ilsa Kuiper, Consultant at MBB Group. Dr Kuiper has recently completed a PhD in building information modelling (BIM). Dr Kuiper shared insights from her research and provided a forward-thinking overview of industry developments and challenges that we face in the not-so-distant future.

This webinar covered:

- Industry developments
 - Technology, data and digital update
 - Government policy and strategies
- Upcoming implications, risks and challenges
 - Degrees of impact and change
 - Role of engagement and collaboration
- Future directions
 - Enhancing services and processes
 - Next evolutions and innovation

How we can help
